DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

3. In regards to claim 3, it has been noted by the Board that the claim is replete with “means” recitations and it is not apparent to the Board or the examiner what structure is being disclosed in the specification that corresponds to these “means”. Merely by way of example, it is not clear what two structures correspond to the recited “means” in paragraphs c) and d) of the claim. While one of these “means” could correspond to the keyway shown in Figure 4, no other structure appears to correspond to the other of these two “means”. If means-plus-function language is employed in this or any other added claim, an adequate disclosure showing what is meant by that language must be set forth in the specification. In view of this paragraph, it is asserted that the applicant has in effect failed to particularly point out and distinctly claim the invention as required by the second paragraph of section 112. In re Dossel, 115 F .3d 942, 946, 42 USPQ2d 1881 (Fed. Cir. 1997).

The addition of reference numbers to clarify which “means” refers to which structure does not overcome this rejection. Reference guides are merely a guide and are not a replacement for structure. M.P.E.P. section 608.01 (m) paragraph

Art Unit: 3724

3 states, "Reference characters corresponding to elements recited in the detailed description and the drawings may be used in conjunction with the recitation of the same element or group of elements in the claims. The reference characters, however, should be enclosed within parentheses so as to avoid confusion with other numbers or characters which may appear in the claims. The use of reference characters is to be considered as having no effect on the scope of the claims."

Allowable Subject Matter

4. It is to be noted that the claim appears to be readable over the art of record. However, in view of the issues under 35 U.S.C. 112, comment with respect to its allowability cannot be made at this time.

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
